dren Bring Donations for Holiday Dinners for City Poor-Rev. George H. Ewing Enumerates Reasons for Givinfg Thanks.

The Thanksgiving organ recital given by H. L. Yerrington at the First Congregational church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock was much appreciated by those present. The program was a fitting one. The low, sweet notes in the Meditation by Lucas, the gladness of rejoicing in the Magnificat, the beauty and tenderness in Schumann's Abend-Lied; the spirited rendering changing to softer notes then again to stirring, joyous outbursts of song in the Harvest Festival March were especially pleasing parts of this program:

Laudate Domini (Festival Prelude), Frysinger; Autumn, Johnson; Medi-Prysinger; Autumn. Johnson; Meditation, Op. 27, No. 2, Lucas; Magnificat in F Major, Chussmann; Adagio in B flat, Op. 258, No. 2, Voickmar; Abend-Lied, Op. 85, No. 12, Schumann; Harvest Festival March "Grafanburg." James.

Celebrated 50th Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Latham gave a reception from 12 to 4 o'clock Monday reception from 12 to 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at their home on the Plain Hill read, it being the 50th anniversary of their marriage. For many years their home was in Preston City, so the larger number of the 25 guests were from there, including Rev. and Mrs. Luther Keneston.

A bountiful turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Latham, assisted by Mrs. George Chesbro and Miss Chapman of Lantern Hill. Miss Hewitt of North Stonington, the only one who was present at the marriage 50 years ago, read an appropriate poem. A letter present at the marriage 50 years ago, read an appropriate poem. A letter was read, sent by Mrs. Wilcox, whose husband, Rev. Asher Wilcox, performed the marriage ceremony. There were other letters and cards, flowers, gifts of china, silver, cut glass, money in gold and checks. One pleasant feature was the showing of the wedding gown of 50 years ago. Many were the congratulations and good wishes of those present.

Thankegiving Sermon.

At the First Congregational church Sunday morning Rev. G. H. Ewing preached from the text, Oh! Give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, for His loving kindness endurets forever. Different thoughts brought out were, We should give thanks for the blessings of the year, for all of good we have been able to do, for right living, for pain since it often comes as a warning. In closing he spoke of the good that will undoubtedly follow in the wake of the war, the quickening of brotherhood among the nations.

There was special music from an enlarged choir.
